ABSTRACT

This bibliography for world history is organized by time frame and culture. Within each time frame or culture, books are organized in the following way: nonfiction books are listed first, alphabetically by publisher; fiction books or stories are listed next, alphabetically by author. Also included is an annotated fiction bibliography for world history. Sources of catalogs for world history materials are identified. A seventh grade core yearly calendar is included which lists major themes for the school year. (EH)

A retelling of the Robin Hood story with a great deal of emphasis on Maid Marion. Great fun.

Scott — IVANHOE

Classic story of Knighthood.

Snyder — THE SONG OF THE GARGOYLE

Thirteen year old Tymmon's Father, the court jester of Austerneve, has been mysteriously kidnapped. The terrified boy must slip away secretly to avoid capture himself. Hiding in the dreaded forest nearby,Tymmon is adopted by a Gargoyle with powers of an enchanted being. They work to find a way to rescue Tymmon's father.

Temple — THE RAMSAY SCALLOP

A young girl who doesn't want to marry is promised to a crusader. He isn't ready for marriage either. A priest suggests that the two go on a pilgrimage to save the town. As they get to know each other they do fall in love and plan to marry at the end of the pilgrimage.

Temple — THE BEDUINS' GAZELLE

Etienne, the young French pilgrim from THE RAMSAY SCALLOP is in Fez studying Arabic. He meets Atiya of the Beni Khalid and is drawn into circumstances of intrigue. Here is a richly tectured look at the world of Islam in the year 680 of the Hegira according to the Muslim calendar and, according to the Christian calendar, the year of our Lord, 1302. (8 cultures)

Voigt — JACKAROO

Jackaroo is a Robin Hood like character taken over by the heroine in the story. There are some realistic scenes of medieval times.

Walsh — A PARCEL OF PATTERNS

Plague fleas arrive in a Derbyshire village in a parcel of patterns. The story is of the brave people of the village who make the ultimate sacrifice to keep the plague from spreading.

Willard — THE LARK AND THE LAUREL (Mantlemass Chronicles Series)

Series of books set in medieval times.

Renaissance

Ehrlich — POME AND PEEL

A Venetian fairy tale with wonderful illustrations. Two brothers join to woo a wizard's daughter. She can only marry one. The other stands alone to face a fearsome test of his courage, love, and loyalty.

Bennett — MASTER SKYLARK A STORY OF SHAKESPEARE'S TIME

Set in Elizabethan England. Nick Attwood is kidnapped by a master player of a band of traveling players. Before he is returned home, he performs for Queen Elizabeth and meets William Shakespeare.

Haugaard — CROMWELL'S BOY
